

Community Health Systems Completes Sale of Select Outreach Laboratory Assets to Labcorp

December 2, 2025

Transaction aims to provide broader access to high-quality testing and laboratory services to communities across the U.S.

FRANKLIN, Tenn. and BURLINGTON, N.C. (December 2, 2025) -- Community Health Systems, Inc. (the "Company") (NYSE: CYH) announced today that its subsidiary, CHS/Community Health Systems, Inc. (CHS), has completed the sale of select assets of the ambulatory outreach laboratory services of CHS-affiliated health systems in 13 states, including certain patient service centers and in-office phlebotomy locations, to Labcorp (NYSE: LH) for approximately $194 million cash, before certain transaction expenses.

This transaction is expected to provide patients and providers with broader access to Labcorp's comprehensive testing and laboratory services, including its specialty testing menu, robust data analytics and digital tools. The CHS-affiliated health systems will continue to operate their inpatient and emergency department laboratories and provide laboratory services for hospital-based services, such as imaging and pre-admission testing.

"Completing this transaction with Labcorp allows our health systems to focus on core services and improve the overall patient experience, aligning with our unwavering commitment to providing high-quality, accessible healthcare to our communities," said Kevin Hammons, President and Interim Chief Executive Officer of Community Health Systems, Inc. "Labcorp's scale and investment in technology supports its ability to efficiently deliver outreach laboratory services to patients and healthcare consumers."

"With the completion of this transaction, Labcorp is expanding access to high-quality, innovative laboratory services for CHS-affiliated health systems' patients and providers and advancing our shared commitment to improving health and lives in the communities we serve," added Mark Schroeder, President of Labcorp Diagnostics and Chief Operations Officer.

This transaction follows other strategic relationships that Labcorp has developed with a range of health systems and regional/local laboratories that have increased access to laboratory services, improved patient care and driven efficiencies for customers.
