GARHENG KONG NAMED TO LABCORP® BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Burlington, NC, OCTOBER 28, 2013 — Laboratory Corporation of America® Holdings (LabCorp®) (NYSE:LH) today announced that Garheng Kong, MD, PhD, has been appointed to its Board of Directors, effective December 1, 2013.

“We are delighted that Garheng has accepted our invitation to join the LabCorp Board of Directors, effective December 1, 2013,” said David P. King, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer. “Garheng’s broad life sciences experience, ranging from his medical training to his leadership in several venture backed companies to his strategic investment analysis brings a unique and important perspective to LabCorp as we continue to execute our five pillar strategy.”

Dr. Kong is a General Partner in Sofinnova Ventures, a life sciences investment firm based in Menlo Park, California. He has served as chairman and director on the boards of numerous companies, and operated as interim CEO for two venture-backed companies. Prior to joining Sofinnova Ventures, Dr. Kong was at Intersouth Partners, most recently as a general partner. During that time, he served as the founding investor and chairman of numerous life sciences companies. Dr. Kong has served on the boards of directors of numerous organizations supporting innovation and research in the life sciences field, including the North Carolina Biotechnology Center, the Hamner Institutes for Life Sciences, the University of Florida Biotechnology Council, and the Investor Advisory Board for the Florida Institute for the Commercialization of Public Research. Prior to his career in private equity, Dr. Kong worked for GlaxoWellcome in clinical development and marketing and for McKinsey & Company. Dr. Kong received his MD (Medical Scientist Training Program), PhD in Biomedical Engineering, and MBA from Duke University. He also holds degrees in Chemical Engineering and Biological Sciences from Stanford University.
