1. BASIS OF FINANCIAL STATEMENT PRESENTATION

The condensed consolidated financial statements include the accounts of Laboratory Corporation of America Holdings and its wholly owned subsidiaries (the "Company") after elimination of all material intercompany accounts and transactions.

The financial statements of the Company's foreign subsidiary are measured using the local currency as the functional currency. Assets and liabilities are translated at exchange rates as of the balance sheet date. Revenues and expenses are translated at average monthly exchange rates prevailing during the period. Resulting translation adjustments are included in "Accumulated other comprehensive loss."

The accompanying condensed consolidated financial statements of the Company are unaudited. In the opinion of management, all adjustments (which include only normal recurring accruals) necessary for a fair presentation of such financial statements have been included. Interim results are not necessarily indicative of results for a full year.

The financial statements and notes are presented in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission and do not contain certain information included in the Company's annual report. Therefore, the interim statements should be read in conjunction with the consolidated financial statements and notes thereto contained in the Company's annual report.

2. EARNINGS PER SHARE

Basic earnings per share is computed by dividing net income, less preferred stock dividends and accretion, by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding. Dilutive earnings per share is computed by dividing net income, by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding plus potentially dilutive shares, as if they had been issued at the beginning of the period presented. Potentially dilutive common shares result primarily from the Company's mandatorily redeemable preferred stock, restricted stock awards and outstanding stock options.

The following represents a reconciliation of the weighted average shares used in the calculation of basic and diluted earnings per share:

| | Three Months Ended June 30, | | Six I Ended Ju | Months une 30, |
|--|--------------------------------|--|----------------------------|--|
| | 2001 | 2000 | 2001 | 2000 |
| Basic Assumed conversion/exercise of: | 69,299,534 | 26,662,270 | 69,265,480 | 26,086,124 |
| Stock options Restricted stock awards Series A preferred stock Series B preferred Stock | 557,172 585,943 | 603,704 332,742 15,865,315 25,897,918 | 552,953 555,668 | 517,786 329,532 15,865,315 25,625,248 |
| Diluted | 70,442,649 | 69,361,949 | 70,374,101 | 68,424,005 |

At June 30, 2001 and 2000, options to acquire 15,897 and 236,041 shares of common stock, respectively, were excluded in the computations of diluted earnings per share, because the effect of including the options would have been antidilutive.

3. ACCOUNTING CHANGE - DERIVATIVE FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

Effective January 1, 2001, the Company adopted Statement of Financial Accounting Standards ("SFAS") No. 133, "Accounting for Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities", as amended by SFAS No. 138, "Accounting for Certain Derivative Instruments and Certain Hedging Activities", which provides a comprehensive and consistent standard for the recognition and measurement of derivatives and hedging activities.

At January 1 and June 30, 2001, the Company was a party to an interest rate swap agreement with a major financial institution, solely to manage its interest rate exposure with respect to $200.0 of its floating rate debt. This effectively fixed the interest rate exposure on the floating rate debt to a weighted-average fixed interest rate of 5.1%. This swap requires that the Company pay a fixed rate amount in exchange for the financial institution paying a floating rate amount. The amount paid by the Company as of June 30, 2001 was $0.2. The swap agreement matures March 31, 2003. The notional amount of the agreement is used to measure the interest to be paid or received and does not represent the amount of exposure to credit loss. The estimated cost at which the Company could have terminated this agreement as of June 30, 2001 was approximately $3.9. This fair value was estimated by discounting the expected cash flows using rates currently available for interest rate swaps with similar terms and maturities. Interest rates in effect for the long-term and revolving credit agreement as of June 30, 2001 were 4.3% and 4.1% respectively.

In accordance with the provisions of SFAS No. 133, as amended, this interest rate swap agreement has been designated as a cash flow hedge and is carried on the balance sheet at fair value. At June 30, 2001, the fair value of the hedge is recorded as a long-term liability of $3.9. In addition, the cumulative effect of the change in accounting principle related to the adoption of SFAS 133, resulted in a $0.6 credit (net-of-tax) to accumulated other comprehensive income on the date of transition (January 1, 2001). For the six months ended June 30, 2001, the change in the fair value of the derivative instrument was recorded as a $2.9 debit (net-oftax) to accumulated other comprehensive income. The swap was considered to be effective for the entire six month period.

If the Company discontinues hedge accounting because it is no longer probable that the forecasted transaction will occur in the originally expected period, the gain or loss on the derivative remains in accumulated other comprehensive income and is reclassified into earnings when the forecasted transaction affects earnings.

4. STOCK SPLIT

On May 24, 2001, the Company's shareholders approved an amendment to the restated certificate of incorporation to increase the number of common shares authorized from 52 million shares to 265 million shares. On June 11, 2001, the Company effected a two-forone stock split through the issuance of a stock dividend of one new share of common stock for each share of common stock held by shareholders of record on June 4, 2001. All references to common stock, common shares outstanding, average number of common shares outstanding, stock options, restricted shares and per share amounts in the Consolidated Financial Statements and Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements have been restated to reflect the June 11, 2001 two-for-one common stock split on a retroactive basis.

5. NEW ACCOUNTING PRONOUNCEMENTS

In June 2001, Statement of Financial Accounting Standards ("SFAS") No. 141, "Business Combinations," was issued. This Statement supersedes APB Opinion No. 16, "Business Combinations" and SFAS No. 38. "Accounting for Preacquisition Contingencies of Purchased Enterprises" and eliminates the pooling method of accounting for business enterprises. This Statement requires all business combinations to be accounted for using the purchase method for all transactions initiated after June 30, 2001.

In June 2001, SFAS No. 142 "Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets" was also issued. This Statement supersedes APB No. 17 "Intangible Assets" and addresses how intangible assets that are acquired individually or with a group of other assets (but not those acquired in a business combination) should be accounted for in financial statements upon their acquisition. This Statement also addresses how goodwill and other intangible assets should be accounted for after they have been initially recognized in the financial statements. Goodwill and intangible assets that have indefinite useful lives will not be amortized but rather will be reviewed at least annually for impairment.

Intangible assets that have finite lives will continue to be amortized over their useful lives, but without the constraint of the 40-year useful life amortization ceiling. The provisions of this Statement are required to be applied starting with fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2001, however, goodwill and intangible assets acquired after June 30, 2001, will be subject immediately to the nonamortization and amortization provisions of this Statement. The Company is evaluating the impact of the adoption of SFAS No. 141 and SFAS No. 142.

6. BUSINESS ACQUISITIONS

On April 30, 2001, the Company completed the acquisition of all of the outstanding stock of Path Lab Holdings, Inc. (Path Lab), which is based in Portsmouth, New Hampshire for approximately $83.0 in cash and future payments of $25.0 based upon attainment of specific earnings targets. Path Lab's revenues for the year ended December 31, 2000 were approximately $51.6.

On June 4, 2001, the Company completed the acquisition of Minneapolis-based Viro-Med Inc. for approximately $31.7 in cash and future payments of $12.0 based upon attainment of specific earnings targets. Viro-Med's revenues for the year ended December 31, 2000 were approximately $25.2.

7. RESTRUCTURING CHARGES

The following represents the Company's restructuring activities for the period indicated:

| | Severance Costs | Lease and Other Facility Costs | Total |
|--|--------------------------|--------------------------------------|--|
| Balance at December 31, 2000 Cash payments Reclassifications and non-cash items | $ 1.9 (1.0) (0.7) | $20.1 (2.9) 0.3 | $22.0 (3.9) (0.4) |
| Balance at June 30, 2001 | $ 0.2 | 17.5 | 17.7 |
| Current Non-current | | | ==== $ 8.4 $ 9.3 $17.7 ==== |

8. LONG-TERM DEBT

The Company made a payment of $33.0 to its term loan on June 30, 2001. The effective rate on the Company's term loan at June 30, 2001 was a weighted-average fixed interest rate of 5.7%. At the end of the second quarter, the Company had an outstanding balance on its revolving credit facility of $50.0 with a weighted-average fixed interest rate of 5.0%.

9. RELATED PARTY TRANSACTION

During June 2001, the Company filed a registration statement relating to the sale by Roche Holdings, Inc. (Roche) of 12.0 million shares of the Company's common stock. Following such sale, Roche's ownership percentage decreased to 15.3% from 32.4%. Under the terms of the Company's Credit Agreement, the effective interest rate on the Company's bank debt increased by approximately 100 basis points as a result of Roche's ownership interest dropping to 15.3%. In connection with this sale, Roche paid the Company $1.2.

10. COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES

The Company is involved in litigation (including two cases which purport to be class action suits) brought on behalf of certain patients, private insurers and benefit plans that paid for laboratory testing services during the time frame covered by the 1996 government settlement. The Company has also received certain similar claims brought on behalf of certain other insurance companies and individuals, some of which have been resolved for immaterial amounts. These claims for private reimbursement are similar to the government claims settled in 1996. Following a careful evaluation of these claims, the Company has entered into settlement negotiations with the representatives of all of these parties, resulting in settlement agreements to resolve the majority of these matters. During the six months ended June 30, 2001, $12.9 was paid out with two of these settlement agreements. Based upon these discussions and settlement agreements, management does not believe that the ultimate outcome of these claims will exceed existing reserves or have a material adverse affect on the Company. On January 9, 2001, the Company was served with a complaint in North Carolina which purports to be a class action and makes claims similar to the cases referred to above. The Company is carefully evaluating this claim. Due to the early stage of the claim, its outcome cannot be presently predicted.

The Company is also involved in various claims and legal actions arising in the ordinary course of business. These matters include, but are not limited to, professional liability, employee related matters, inquiries from governmental agencies and Medicare or Medicaid carriers requesting comment on allegations of billing irregularities that are brought to their attention through billing audits or third parties. In the opinion of management, based upon the advice of counsel and consideration of all facts available at this time, the ultimate disposition of these matters will not have a material adverse effect on the financial position, results of operations or liquidity of the Company.

The Company believes that it is in compliance in all material respects with all statutes, regulations and other requirements applicable to its clinical laboratory operations. The clinical laboratory testing industry is, however, subject to extensive regulation, and many of these statutes and regulations have not been interpreted by the courts. There can be no assurance therefore that applicable statutes and regulations might not be interpreted or applied by a prosecutorial, regulatory or judicial authority in a manner that would adversely affect the Company. Potential sanctions for violation of these statutes and regulations include significant fines and the loss of various licenses, certificates and authorizations.

7. our failure to obtain and retain new customers and alliance partners, or a reduction in tests ordered or specimens submitted by existing customers.

8. our failure to integrate newly acquired businesses and the cost related to such integration.

9. adverse results in litigation matters.

10.our ability to attract and retain experienced and qualified personnel.

11. failure to maintain our days sales outstanding levels.

RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

- -----

Three Months ended June 30, 2001 compared with Three Months ended June 30, 2000.

Net sales for the three months ended June 30, 2001 were $549.7, an increase of $67.3, or 14.0%, from $482.4 for the comparable 2000 period. The sales increase is a result of increases in both volume and price of approximately 7% each. The increase in sales for the second quarter of 2001 would have been approximately 10.0% after excluding the effect of the acquisitions made in 2001 and 2000.

Cost of sales, which includes primarily laboratory and distribution costs, was $308.8 for the three months ended June 30, 2001 compared to $281.2 in the corresponding 2000 period, an increase of $27.6. The increase in cost of sales is primarily the result of increases in volume and supplies due to recent acquisitions and growth in the base business. Cost of sales as a percentage of net sales was 56.2% for the three months ended June 30, 2001 and 58.3% in the corresponding 2000 period. The decrease in the cost of sales percentage of net sales primarily resulted from price increases, changes in the mix of tests favoring higher value tests and the addition of new, higher margin business.

Selling, general and administrative expenses increased to $127.4 for the three months ended June 30, 2001 from $122.1 in the same period in 2000. This increase resulted primarily from bad debt expense on higher net sales amounts, as well as from personnel and other costs as a result of the recent acquisitions. Due to improved cash collections, the Company lowered its provision for bad debt expense, as a percentage of sales, to 9.4% for the three months ended June 30, 2001 compared to 9.7% for the three months ended March 31, 2001. As a percentage of net sales, selling, general and administrative expenses were 23.2% and 25.3% for the three months ended June 30, 2001 and 2000, respectively.

The amortization of intangibles and other assets was $10.9 and $7.8 for the three months ended June 30, 2001 and 2000.

Interest expense was $7.5 for the three months ended June 30, 2001 compared with $9.3 for the same period in 2000. The decline in interest expense is a result of the Company's reduction in long-term debt and lower interest rates. As of July 1, 2001, the interest rate on the term loan increased by 1.0% and the interest rate on the revolver increased by 0.9375% due to the reduction of Roche Holdings, Inc.'s (Roche) ownership of the Company's stock. During June 2001, Roche sold 12.0 million shares which reduced their ownership of the Company's common stock to 15.3% from 32.4%.

The provision for income taxes as a percentage of earnings before taxes was 45.0% for the three months ended June 30, 2001 compared to 46.0% for the three months ended June 30, 2000.

Six Months ended June 30, 2001 compared with Six Months ended June 30, 2000.

Net sales for the six months ended June 30, 2001 were $1,075.2, an increase of $130.1, or 13.8%, from $945.1 for the comparable 2000 period. The sales increase is a result of an increase in price of approximately 7.3% and an increase in volume of approximately 6.5%. The increase in sales for the six months ended June 30, 2001 would have been approximately 10.7% after excluding the effect of the acquisitions made in 2001 and 2000.

Cost of sales, which includes primarily laboratory and distribution costs, was $612.7 for the six months ended June 30, 2001 compared to $560.4 in the corresponding 2000 period, an increase of $52.3. The increase in cost of sales is primarily the result of increases in volume and supplies due to recent acquisitions and growth in the base business. Cost of sales as a percentage of net sales was 57.0% for the six months ended June 30, 2001 and 59.3% in the corresponding 2000 period. The decrease in the cost of sales percentage of net sales primarily resulted from price increases, changes in the mix of tests favoring higher value tests and the addition of new, higher margin business.

Selling, general and administrative expenses increased to $252.4 for the six months ended June 30, 2001 from $240.5 in the same period in 2000. This increase resulted primarily from bad debt expense on higher net sales amounts, as well as from personnel and other costs as a result of the recent acquisitions. The Company lowered its provision for bad debt expense, as a percentage of sales, to 9.4% for the three months ended June 30, 2001, making its effective bad debt rate for the six month period equal 9.5% compared to 10.2% at December 31, 2000. As a percentage of net sales, selling, general and administrative expenses were 23.5% and 25.4% for the six months ended June 30, 2001 and 2000, respectively.

The amortization of intangibles and other assets was $20.2 and $15.5 for the six months ended June 30, 2001 and 2000.

Interest expense was $16.3 for the six months ended June 30, 2001 compared with $19.8 for the same period in 2000. The decline in interest expense is a result of the Company's reduction in long-term debt and lower interest rates.

The provision for income taxes as a percentage of earnings before taxes was 45.0% for the six months ended June 30, 2001 compared to 46.0% for the six months ended June 30, 2000.

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

Net cash provided by operating activities was $138.7 and $129.9 for the six months ended June 30, 2001 and June 30, 2000, respectively. The increase in cash flow from operations primarily resulted from improved earnings and improved cash collections offset by legal settlements of approximately $12.9 and an increase of $42.8 in income taxes paid for the six months ended June 30, 2001. Capital expenditures were $33.6 and $26.1 for the six months ended June 30, 2001 and 2000, respectively.

During the second quarter, the Company made cash payments on the acquisitions of Path Lab Holdings, Inc. and Viro-Med Inc., totaling approximately $115.0. These payments were financed primarily through available cash plus net borrowings of $50.0 under the Company's revolving credit agreement.

The Company's days sales outstanding (DSO) decreased to 64 days at June 30, 2001 from 68 days at the end of December 31, 2000. During the quarter, the Company lowered its bad debt as a percentage of sales to 9.4% as compared to 10.2% at the end of December 31, 2000. This reduction reflects the positive trends in cash collections for the guarter.

Based on current and projected levels of operations, coupled with availability under its revolving credit facility, the Company believes it has sufficient liquidity to meet both its short-term and long-term cash needs. For a discussion of legal proceedings which may impact the Company's liquidity and capital resources see "Note 10 to the Company's Unaudited Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements".
