LabCorp Earns 100 Percent on Human Rights Campaign Foundation's 16th Annual Scorecard on LGBTQ Workplace Equality

Receives Designation as a Best Place to Work for LGBTQ Equality

BURLINGTON, N.C., Nov. 13, 2017 — LabCorp (NYSE: LH), a leading global life sciences company, announced that it received a perfect score of 100 percent on the 2018 Corporate Equality Index (CEI), a national benchmarking survey and report on corporate policies and practices related to lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender and queer (LGBTQ) workplace equality, administered by the Human Rights Campaign Foundation.

“We are pleased to receive this recognition,” said David P. King, chairman and CEO of LabCorp. “At LabCorp, we seek to set an unequivocal tone and standard of treating every person with dignity and respect. The CEI recognition demonstrates that our 57,000 colleagues around the globe hold each other accountable to these values and to a positive work environment and culture.”

The 2018 CEI rated 947 businesses in the report, which evaluates LGBTQ-related policies and practices including non-discrimination workplace protections, domestic partner benefits, transgender-inclusive health care benefits, competency programs, and public engagement with the LGBTQ community. LabCorp's efforts in satisfying all of the CEI's criteria resulted in a 100 percent ranking and the designation as a Best Place to Work for LGBTQ Equality.

This is the first time LabCorp formally participated in the survey, achieving the highest score on its initial submission.
