The skills and characteristics identified shall reflect the Board’s commitment to develop a diverse pool of individuals from which director nominees may be selected, including as may be required under applicable law.

3. At least on an annual basis, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee shall evaluate and analyze the skills and experience of the Board members, taking into account the diversity, age, background, skills, tenure and expertise of the Board as a whole, the Board’s succession plan and the Company’s business needs. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee shall also annually evaluate and analyze the independence of each Board member in accordance with the listing standards of the New York Stock Exchange and applicable laws, rules and regulations.

4. Based on the criteria and evaluation set forth in paragraphs 2 and 3 above, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee shall recommend to the Board the nominees for election at the next annual meeting or any special meeting of stockholders and any person to be considered to fill a Board vacancy or a newly created directorship resulting from any increase in the authorized number of directors.

5. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee shall (a) Review and evaluate any change of circumstances or actual or potential conflict of interest relating to any director that may affect the independence of the director that are reported pursuant to the Company’s Corporate Governance Guidelines or otherwise brought to the attention of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee and (b) advise the Board as to the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee’s findings and recommendations relating to the independence and continued service of any such director and, on an ongoing basis, any other issues pertaining to the independence of the Company’s directors.

6. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee shall oversee the orientation and training of newly elected directors and continuing education for all Board members.

7. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee shall annually recommend to the Board director nominees for each Board committee, taking into account the listing standards of the New York Stock Exchange and applicable laws, rules and regulations. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee shall also advise the Board on removal of any Board committee members.

8. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee shall oversee an annual assessment of the Board’s performance, including an evaluation of each individual director, to be discussed with the Board following the end of each fiscal year.

9. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee together with the Compensation and Human Capital Committee shall also establish and oversee an annual performance evaluation of management.

10. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee shall review and reassess the adequacy of the corporate governance principles of the Company annually and recommend any proposed changes to the Board for approval.

11. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee shall be responsible for ensuring that executive sessions of the Board are held regularly.

12. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee may form and delegate authority to subcommittees if determined to be necessary or advisable, provided that any subcommittee shall report any actions taken by it to the whole Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee at its next regularly scheduled meeting.

13. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee shall make reports to the Board at its next regularly scheduled meeting following the meeting of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee accompanied by any recommendation to the Board.

14. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee shall review and reassess the adequacy of this Charter annually and recommend any proposed changes to the Board for approval.
15. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee shall review its own performance annually, including in respect of the requirements of this Charter.

16. The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee shall have such other authority and responsibilities as may be assigned to it from time to time by the Board.
