On June 4, 2015, Laboratory Corporation of America[®] Holdings (LabCorp[®]) (LH: NYSE) today announced the expanded availability of its proprietary specimen collection and handling software, LabCorp *Accu*Draw[®], to all clients through its website at www.LabCorp.com. Combining on-screen visual cues with step-by-step tutorials, *Accu*Draw is an innovative tool designed to guide the health care professional who collects patient specimens throughout the specimen collection process. *Accu*Draw helps to facilitate collection and appropriate stabilization of the correct specimen type and sample volume. This technology-enabled solution leads to fewer errors in specimen collection and processing, a reduced chance of delays in testing, and a lower likelihood of having a patient undergo a second visit to a health care professional for further specimen collection. *Accu*Draw has been used in LabCorp's patient service centers and by LabCorp's phlebotomists located in client locations for over five years. *Accu*Draw has previously only been, and will continue to be, available to LabCorp clients through the LabCorp Beacon[®] application.

LabCorp Expands Access to LabCorp AccuDraw® to Support Better Patient Care

BURLINGTON, NC, June 4, 2015 - Laboratory Corporation of America® Holdings (LabCorp®) (LH: NYSE) today announced the expanded availability of its proprietary specimen collection and handling software, LabCorp *Accu*Draw®, to all clients through its website at www.LabCorp.com. Combining onscreen visual cues with step-by-step tutorials, *Accu*Draw is an innovative tool designed to guide the health care professional who collects patient specimens throughout the specimen collection process. *Accu*Draw helps to facilitate collection and appropriate stabilization of the correct specimen type and sample volume. This technology-enabled solution leads to fewer errors in specimen collection and processing, a reduced chance of delays in testing, and a lower likelihood of having a patient undergo a second visit to a health care professional for further specimen collection. *Accu*Draw has been used in LabCorp's patient service centers and by LabCorp's phlebotomists located in client locations for over five years. *Accu*Draw has previously only been, and will continue to be, available to LabCorp clients through the LabCorp Beacon® application.

"As the world's leading healthcare diagnostics company, LabCorp is committed to developing technology-enabled solutions that change the way care is provided and improve patient outcomes," said David P. King, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of LabCorp. "Our *Accu*Draw system has dramatically improved the patient experience, ensuring accurate collections for tests for over 100 million patient encounters. We are excited to expand customer access to this successful tool."

*Accu*Draw provides a detailed set of specimen collection and handling instructions, allowing office staff to spend more time on patient care and less time confirming the specimen collection process and requirements. On-screen visual cues are combined with detailed collection instructions to help ensure specimen and collection accuracy in the physician office.

For patients and the physician office, *Accu*Draw provides:

- Improved precision and accuracy Visual cues are customized to the specific physician test order and linked to LabCorp's current test requirements.
- High-quality specimens the guided process and clear instructions helps to ensure the highest quality specimen is sent to the laboratory for testing.
- Time efficiencies Reduce the amount of time spent speaking to the lab about specimen requirements or identifying specimens that were not properly submitted to the lab.
- Reduction in repeat draws AccuDraw's collection, handling, and shipping guidance significantly reduces the need for patient redraws and repeat visits.
